Militza SborosNominee: Ordinary

I am a proud SAHETI alumna and lifelong member of the SAHETI community. I matriculated from SAHETI in 1996, having started my educational journey at the school in nursery school. My husband is also a SAHETI alumnus, and our two sons currently attend the school. This enduring connection has given me a deep appreciation for SAHETI's unique role in fostering academic excellence while preserving our Hellenic heritage, culture and values.

I am a Chartered Accountant (CA(SA)) and completed my articles at Deloitte, specialising in Financial Institutions. My professional experience includes banking, treasury environments and pension funds. During my career, I served as a Senior Manager in Deloitte Johannesburg's Special Services Division and later with Deloitte Consulting in Mozambique, leading projects for major organisations across a variety of sectors. I currently own and operate a business specialising in fashion and jewellery.

Having served on the SAHETI PTA for several years, including as Chairperson from 2024 to 2026, I have worked closely with parents, staff and school leadership to strengthen community engagement, support key initiatives and contribute to school improvement projects.

I am committed to supporting SAHETI's long-term sustainability, sound governance and strategic growth, ensuring the school remains financially sustainable, community-focused and firmly rooted in the Hellenic values and traditions that have shaped generations of learners.

Gary Ttappous - Brief BiographyNominee: Foundation and Ordinary

I am an experienced business professional with a legal education and a diverse background spanning commerce, strategic management, and entrepreneurial ventures. I have a foundation in commercial as well as tax law, a keen understanding of the structuring of commercial enterprises and an in-depth knowledge of contract and transaction methodologies for commercial benefit.

Throughout my career, I have held key leadership positions, including senior Management positions with a multinational company, where I used my expertise in navigating complex commercial landscapes to drive business success. As Marketing Director and International Business Unit Manager Director, I led our team's strategic vision and shaped the direction of international trade, export markets, and financing models.

Beyond these corporate roles, I have enjoyed exercising my entrepreneurial spirit, investing time and resources into building a successful family business within various enterprises in the retail and manufacturing sector. I have a proven track record of success in management of people and businesses enterprises.

I am a SAHETI alumnus and have served as a Board member in various capacities for a number of years, as well as having established the SAHETI Alumni Association.
